UM OFFERS CONFERENCE FOR CPAS AND EXECUTIVES IN BIGFORK

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana is kicking off its 1994 series of Western Accounting Conferences with a May 29-June 2 gathering at Averill's Flathead Lake Lodge in Bigfork.

The five-day conference, designed for certified public accountants and executives, will offer seven separate continuing professional education (CPE) courses on management, accounting and finance topics. Participants can earn 24 to 40 CPE credits.

Presenters at the conference will include Hap Klopp, founder of North Face, the world's leading producer of outdoor adventure equipment; nationally recognized tax expert Vern Hoven; and several UM business faculty members.

The conference's setting will offer abundant recreational opportunities as well as intensive courses. Flathead Lake Lodge will arrange a wide variety of daily activities -- horseback riding, waterskiing, sailing, golf, tennis and lake cruises -- for participants and their families.

CPE Courses will include: "Strategic Financial Management," "Designing an Effective Business Plan," "1994-1995 Federal Tax Update," "Effective Decision-Making," "FASB Update and Review," "Oh No-OPEB!," and "The Adventure of Leadership."

Early registration for the full five-day conference costs $629; the cost after April 29 is $699. Participants may opt to attend any three days of the conference for a fee of $529 before April 29 or $599 after that date. To register or for more information call the UM Center for Continuing
